We know better than that. If that was what we did, you would probably have one transaction with us and that would be the end of it. Was the Watch Lowery's?

A man named John H. Kain came to the police headquarters yesterday and claimed that the watch which the man R. L. Lowery put up the other day as security for money borrowed to pay back $10 he raised on another man's horse, was no more Lowery's property than the horse was. Kain says he loaned the watch to Lowery. He said Lowery was in the lockup at Bellair, but a telephone message from there denied this.

The Annual Pennyroyal Reunion.

The twelfth annual "Pennyroyal Reunion," which has become a fixed institution in Eastern Ohio, will occur August 18 and 19 in Gardner's grove, near Fairview, Ohio, and will be unusually attractive in the character of its proceedings. Ex-President Hayes, Governor Campbell, next-Governor McKinley, Congressman Taylor and a host of lesser lights will be present. Prof. Sargent will sing an original song, the Lane family will play, and there will be many other drawing features.

Down the O-hio.

About 8 o'clock last evening the Brunswick Fishing Club pushed off its handsome boat and floated off down the river for its camping ground near Woodland station. The boys expect to be gone about two weeks. City Clerk Thoner accompanied the party as far as Benwood, and reluctantly returned, pressing duties demanding his presence here till this evening, when he will go down for good. The other members are: Capt. A. Schneider, B. Kline, H. Schuler, Luther Mayney, William Bondwing, James Manton and H. Smouse, and the club is accompanied by Thomas Collins as cook.

READY FOR THE MASONRY.

The Excavation for the South Abutment of the Stone Bridge Done.

The excavation for the south abutment of the stone bridge across the creek is down to the red clay or "keel" rock on which the north abutment was started, and at the close of work last night only a few strokes of work remained to be done in squaring up the bottom of the pit. As soon as the track is laid on the tramway across the creek to convey stone from the yard on the north side the masonry work will begin.

But one course of stone remains to be finished on the north abutment of the bridge before the springing of the arch will be commenced. The false work will be constructed at once, beginning at the north end, and work on the arch will be pushed with the same energy that has marked the work on the foundations.

The essential lung-healing principle of the pine tree has finally been successfully separated and refined into a perfect cough medicine. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Sold by all dealers on a guarantee of satisfaction. daw

MRS. GLESSNER'S FUNERAL.

Affecting Services at Her Father's House Yesterday.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. George K. Taylor, on the corner of Jacob and Fourteenth streets, over the remains of his daughter, Ella, the wife of Mr. W. L. Glessner, whose tragic death by drowning has been recorded. All forenoon yesterday people moved by sympathy or curiosity visited the house in such large numbers that it was found necessary to refuse admission to any but family connections or intimate friends.

At the hour announced for the services not only the residence, but the spacious grounds, and even the sidewalks adjoining were crowded with people. In the absence of Rev. Dr. Cunningham, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Glessner was a member, Rev. Dr. W. H. Cooke, of the Second church, and Rev. Dr. C. W. Cushing, of the Fourth street M. E. church, officiated. The choir of the First church, composed of Mrs. Flora Williams, Miss Theresa Phillips, Mr. W. B. Day and Mr. W. D. McCoy, sang several appropriate selections with solemn effect, and the services throughout were impressive and affecting in the extreme.

There was an unusually large number of beautiful floral offerings, loose flowers, bouquets and appropriate designs. The pallbearers were Messrs. Joseph Spedel, W. H. Hearn, J. J. Jones, Alfred Paul, J. W. Grubb and R. H. List. The interment was at Greenwood Cemetery and was private.

FUNERAL OF MR. CALLAGHAN.

A Large Concourse Follow his Body to the Grave—A. O. H. Out.

Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock the funeral of the late Patrick Callaghan took place from the residence of his brother-in-law, John Burke, at 4107 Jacob street. Mr. Callaghan had been a member of the A. O. H. and also of the union of conductors and operators of the electrical street railway, and both organizations attended the funeral. The A. O. H. was led by Mayer's band and was followed by the conductors and operators. Services were held at the church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. Father Mullen officiating, after which the remains were taken to Mt. Calvary cemetery. The marching organizations accompanied the hearse as far as the head of Sixteenth street and then, dividing ranks, allowed the procession to pass through.

The pallbearers were: John J. Coniff, James Mulroy, Thomas W. Killeen, John Corcoran, James Killeen, William O'Neill, Michael Dunn and James J. Fitzgerald.

Funeral of Adam Cappel.

The remains of Mr. Adam Cappel, whose death was announced yesterday, were buried yesterday afternoon from his late residence at 140 Fourteenth street, and the attendance was unusually large, Mr. Cappel being an old resident and very popular with his acquaintances. The Wheeling Turnverein, of which he was long treasurer, and the German Pioneer Society attended in a body. Rev. Mr. Mans conducted the services at the house, and the pallbearers were Dietrich Roemer, Jacob Straub, Julius Lohse, Conrad Schambra, John Weiss and F. Lobenstein. The floral offerings were very fine, especially an anthurus of flowers bearing the word "Father," and a cross from the Turners marked with the words "F. F. S. F."

A BOY'S FOOT MASHED.

He Gets a Practical Lesson Not to Hang on Moving Trains.

Yesterday at 11 a. m. as the Elm Grove train in charge of Conductor Henry Stoehr was passing Woods street on Sixteenth a boy of six or seven years, Fred Conant, a son of Henry Conant, of 150 Fifteenth street, caught on near the rear end and tried to swing up on the step. He lost his hold with one hand, and falling, got his right foot under the wheels, and it was run over and terribly bruised and mashed. He was carried home and Dr. Taylor summoned. Two of his toes had to be amputated, and his injuries will lay him up for some time.

Evils of the Whisky Traffic.

Yesterday afternoon on the five o'clock train on the Elm Grove road two barrels of whisky were carried out for a saloon keeper at the Grove. Henry Stoehr, the conductor, undertook to lift one of them off without aid, but just as he had it suspended it twisted in his hands, wrenching and spraining his back painfully and perhaps seriously. He will not be able to work again for some time.

A Boy Badly Hurt.

A six-year-old boy of Barney Burke, who lives on Fifth street, was playing in the alley in the rear of his parents' home, when a horse belonging to Philip Eckhart, which was running loose in the alley, kicked up his heels, striking the boy on the head and inflicting injuries of so serious a character that the boy was reported last evening in a precarious condition.

A Slight Collision.

Yesterday morning as the Belmont Iron Company's dinky locomotive No. 2 was coming out of the blast furnace, a freight train on the Ohio River railroad, drawn by engine 16, ran into it. The cabs of both locomotives were knocked off and the track so blockaded that it took nearly a half hour to clear it. None of the train hands were hurt, but the damage was pretty costly.

Fight on Water Street.

Last evening James Massack, a stone-cutter, and John Klevis got into a fight in front of the latter's boarding house and saloon, on Water street above the Hotel Windsor, and considerable claret was shed. Officer Moran arrested both of them, and they will have an opportunity to explain their disagreement in the police court this morning.

WHEELING INSTALMENT CO.

What we offer this week are goods of an "immediate need" character, entirely seasonable and without indispensable. They may have met your eye at other places, but never has it rested on them at our prices, which are always the lowest and which will, this week, be on these "immediate need" goods lower than ever. We have Ice Chests at $6; we have them, in fact, at any price. Your attention, however, we would have especially directed to our large Solid Ash Ice Chests, guaranteed charcoal filled, for $9, worth $12. We cannot stop to talk about their worth; it's entirely foreign to our present considerations of how many of these goods [we have and how long it will take to dispose of them. We have adopted the most expeditious plan by reducing prices. This same reduction applies to our entire line of Ice Chests and Refrigerators. In warm weather needfuls we offer four-gallon Water Coolers, that is the same Cooler that sells regularly at $3 50, for $2 25 each; three-gallon Water Cooler $1 75, former price $2 75; two-gallon Coolers 75c each.

In Baby Carriages we have an assortment hard to beat in Reed and Rattan Bodies, upholstered in all shades and qualities of upholstery goods, which we sell for cash or on credit.
